THE LANTERN.

UBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

J. T. WIGHAM, Editor and Proprietor.

Published at the Postoffice at Chester, S. C., under second-class mail matter.

FRIDAY, NOV. 10, 1906.

Gen. E. A. Garlington, the recently appointed Inspector general of the United States army is attracting much attention now and is said to be one of the most trusted officers in the army. He is the first man from this state who has won a high position in the army since the war.

The Revolutionary pension bill has just been signed, with the death of the last pensioner, a widow who married an old veteran when she was young. With like persistence of pensioners, it is calculated that the last pensioner of the war between the states will live until 1968.

The frightful death of Miss Beecham was a shock to people here, where a few years ago she was a diligent pupil in school, and by her quiet, amiable disposition, won the hearts of her companions. It is hard to realize that one so gentle should be so ruthlessly snatched away.

The Seaboard people have notified the railroad commission that the local passenger is to be taken off, and the commission has served notice upon them that if the local is taken off the vestibule must give local service. If the latter stop at all stations it will give better service than the local, as the latter gives too short a time between trains. It was the demand for stopping at all stations that caused the local to be put on.

Dr. Gill Wylie's malaria cure, which we published a week or two ago, has received wide publicity, and the result will be looked for with interest. Were it not for the eminent authority from which it comes, we should have looked upon the prescription as a joke, but Dr. Wylie is not a joker in professional matters. With apologies to the distinguished physician, however, we should like to see it tried on an able-bodied elephant first, and if he was able to flip his ears after the treatment, we would approach it, cautiously.

Gov. Heyward made a hit at the Nashville Immigration and Quarantine conference something like that made by Wm. J. Bryan at the democratic convention at which he leaped into prominence. Gov. Heyward's speech made him a candidate for president, while Gov. Heyward's made him president of the Southern Industrial association, which was organized. Congress' honors have come to the governor, from all directions. On every occasion, Gov. Heyward seems endowed with inspiration to touch the chord that responds.

Next Tuesday, the 20th, will be a notable day in Columbia, the day on which the Hampton monument will be unveiled. People from all over the state and from other states will be there, and almost all kinds of organizations will be represented, especially the military and Confederate veterans. Wade Hampton was one of the most patriotic public men South Carolina has ever had. Others have been more brilliant, but few others ever gave their service to the state with that service meant no great a sacrifice and offered no little prospect of compensation. Offered the leadership of his party, he declined. Called upon to lead a forlorn hope—a hopeless hope—he answered, "I recognize the paramount claim which South Carolina has upon all her sons." He counted not the cost but rushed into the conflict with the energy of desperation and achieved success where failure seemed sure. He won lasting fame at the head of the Hampton legion, but it was not there that his greatest victory was won. If love of country and self-sacrifice are to be commemorated, then this monument is fittingly bestowed.

A perusal of our report of the past week's court proceedings will impress the gentle reader with the idea that the docket is considerably congested yet.—Newberry Observer.

A perusal of your report of the past week's court proceedings has impressed this gentle reader with the idea that it presents the longest string of cases "continued" we remember ever to have seen. It looks as if if the inmates wanted to get through to go fishing if the time taken up continuing cases were spent in trying some of them it would help some.

The provisional government must or cannot do except the chief of New York advertising agents who have sent us a proposition to advertise the Jamestown exposition. They proposed sending us matter that would fill a column or two closely printed in each issue for one month, and in payment they would send us ten tickets of admission to the exposition. We have been printing a good deal of matter sent direct by the exposition officials but not on contract, and just such as we saw fit, as matter of information and at the same time keeping the exposition before our readers. We expect to keep this up and we are pretty sure that we can pull their legs, for as much as ten tickets, but our contributions of space have been made without this in view.

STAYED OR STOLEN?—One stayed here, about 4 years old, dark, while the other was a white, the last few. W. H. Lipton, Chester, S. C.

The recent session of Lexington's criminal court clearly gives one an idea of how the County's money is being spent, the entire week being consumed and only a couple of cases disposed of. Our County Superior is authority for the statement that the court expenses average $2.50 per minute while in session. If such be the case, and we have no reason for doubting it, can we ever expect relief from the burden of over taxation so long as such conditions as at present exist? Witnesses by the score are called but few cases are tried. County Cooks the bill is a great many cases. How long will this continue in court will be compelled to shut down their practice for those who are thoroughly acquainted with the facts in the case, and those alone? This condition of affairs should merit the serious consideration of our lawmakers.—Lexington.

And while they are at it they might try to round up and issue the material witness who so habitually stays off just when he is needed. And then in behalf of the tax payers and law-abiding people, they might see what can be done to reduce the excessive number of those cases which after requiring the attendance of witnesses and other expenses nearly enough to try them, term after term, and again and again like the serial story, "continued."

A cold taken at this time of the year is generally hard to get rid of, but we will be able to withstand the Laxative Honey and Tar, which will cure all colds, coughs, croup, whooping cough, etc., by driving them out through the bowels. If you have a cold, try it and if not cured get your money back. No opiates. Sold by the Chester Drug Co.

National Exchange Bank.

The National Exchange Bank will be ready for business early in December, unless some unexpected hitch should cause delay. In dealing with the National government there are many apparently unimportant requirements that must be complied with to the letter, and the slightest oversight will cause delay.

Of course so far as patrons of the Exchange Bank are concerned, they will see no difference, any more than they can see the difference between evening the Exchange Bank of Chester will close and the next morning it will open as the National Exchange Bank. Mr. M. S. Lewis will still be at the cashier's desk, just as courteous as he was the day before, just as careful of collateral and as watchful of the interests of depositors and stockholders. Mr. B. M. Spratt, Jr., will be at the window, his face beaming with imperturbable good humor, and he will cash your check or relieve your deposit with equal facility. Mr. James B. Dye, of portly form and sunny disposition, will be seen quietly turning the leaves of those huge books and making entries that will challenge the eye of the inspector. Mr. Killough, however, will make his usual rounds with that same red book, and you need not hang around the bank to find out when a draft comes. Killough will let you know.

The other help will be of the same complexion as before. In fact there will be nothing in the change to jar you. The bank, however, will be starting upon a new era which, it is hoped, will eclipse the splendid record of the past.

There is a handsome surplus to apportion among the stockholders, amounting to the larger part of the original investment. The ownership of the dividend that has been paid from year to year.

Though there will be no increase of capital at present, there will be a few new stockholders, owing to their acquiring stock that has been bought in from time to time.

The Exchange Bank directors will be the directors of the National Exchange Bank, with J. L. Glenn, Esq., president.

The advantage claimed for a national bank is, to the patron, greater inspection and other safe guards of the national government. To the bank, advantage is found in the increased patronage which may follow increased confidence. Then there is the profit on the issue of bank notes secured by interest-bearing bonds.

To the business public of Chester, there is the advantage of having all the accommodation and adaptability of banking facilities furnished by both classes of banks, for it must be known that all the banks of Chester are just about as secure as any business institution can be.

See's Laxative Honey and Tar is the official laxative of our army and is a cathartic on the bowels. It is made from the best of our own country, therefore the best for children. It is good for colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Try one free offer. Sold by the Chester Drug Co.

Watching Chester.

To the business public of Chester, there is the advantage of having all the accommodation and adaptability of banking facilities furnished by both classes of banks, for it must be known that all the banks of Chester are just about as secure as any business institution can be.

Freight Train Wrecked in Lancaster.

A north-bound freight train on the Southern, in charge of Engineer Jack Brown and Conductor Neill Simpson, tonight had a collision at a point about 200 yards west of the depot here. Owing to the dropping of one end of a beam bridge on the track, four box cars loaded with merchandise were derailed and completely wrecked, in the east-bound direction.

THE NADINOLA GEL

A few applications will remove tan or sallowness, and restore the beauty of youth.

NADINOLA is a new discovery, guaranteed and money will be refunded in every case where it fails to remove freckles, pimples, liver-spots, solar discoloration, black-heads, disfiguring eruptions, etc., in 30 days. After these defects are removed the skin will be soft, clear and healthy.

Mrs. Edward Jones, of Mount Sterling, Kentucky, writes: "I feel it my duty to tell you the benefit Nadinola has done for me. I have suffered from freckles and liver-spots for many years. After using Nadinola for a few days, the freckles and liver-spots disappeared. After giving it a fair trial, I most heartily recommend it, for it is worth the trouble to get to any woman having freckles. Nadinola is the only thing I have ever used with such good results. I have never heard of any other woman who has not been cured. I wish you to send me a bottle of Nadinola at once."

Price 50 cents and $1.00, by leading druggists or mail. Prepared by Nadinol Toller Co., Paris, Tenn.

Chatham to Resign.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 12—Richard Chatham, secretary of the Southern cotton association, announced today that he will resign his position at the expiration of his present term. The resignation, he said, will be presented and become effective at the meeting of the executive committee in Birmingham about the middle of January, next. Mr. Chatham said that his work with the Cotton Journal requires all his time.

Brinkman, Nov. 12.—Major Gen. Wm. H. Staff, retired, U. S. A., died at 12:45 p. m. today at the ranch of Capt. W. H. McKittrick, his son-in-law, 20 miles south of this city, after an illness of several days. Burial will be at the post cemetery at the Presidio, San Francisco, with full military honors.

Extract from address delivered at Carterville, Ga., October 19th.

"Where I called upon to state, in a few words, the qualities that give credit to the master of assemblies and enabled him to carry with the great of a nation the vast thousands that crowded to his ministry, I should say that they were his philosophical insight into the secret springs of human life, his power of lucid, luminous statements, his rare, gentle humor, the strength and wealth of his genuine love for humanity, and the marvelous quality of his wonderful voice—all under the domination and inspiration of the Holy Spirit. He had many rare qualities and attractive virtues, but one great gift—the gift of commanding utterance. And upon that his fame with rest and his influence abide. His pre-eminence was as a preacher. God anointed him to be a prophet in Israel, and clothed him with a power over a few times in a generation. He said more quotable words than any other man of his time, and he had a genius for proverb making."

There is our contained opinion of the Origin of the Cough Syrup. "Nearly all other cough syrups are counterfeits, especially those containing opium. Leuceny's Laxative (Cough Syrup) Honey and Tar moves the bowels. Contains opium. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by all druggists."

Mr. M. W. Warley Plank has been elected supreme court judge of North by the democrats. About 30 years ago Mr. Plank came to this country from Bohemia, Germany, and settled in Marion where he was a clerk in a store. While in Bohemia he studied law in the office of Major Warley of Arlington, who was then in partnership with Mr. McChesney. Major Warley took a fancy to the young man and told him he would adopt him as his son if he would take his name. Mr. Plank took Warley as his given name but the writer does not know whether he was ever really adopted by Major Warley or not. Plank was then doing a fine law practice in New York and was now elected to the supreme bench. He is a cousin of Mr. E. R. Bogle of Arlington, who is now in the senate from New York.

Dancing Proves Fatal.

Many men and women catch cold at dances, which terminate in rheumatism, and consumption. After exposure, if Foley's Honey and Tar is taken it breaks up a cold and no serious results need be feared. Before you tell the gentles in a fellow pack, get—Leuceny's Pharmacy.

Married Men to Reform Him.

Mrs. Thelbert Good, twenty years old an unusually beautiful woman; committed suicide at Bedford city yesterday. A few months ago she married a dissipated man intending to reform him. Her suicide tells the result.

It is an experiment women have tried generations ago for generations. Why they do it is a mystery to men and probably to the women themselves. This odd superstition comes about almost to one. The average man would not make a week's salary at even money where he had but one chance in twenty to win. The average woman makes her life, honor and personal happiness and the future of her prospective children on such a proposition. She continues to do it somewhere every day of the year. Richmond News Leader.

Give children's remedy with a pleasant taste. Don't force unpleasant medicine on your children. Leuceny's Cough Syrup (containing) Honey and Tar is pleasant to take. It is a relief for better, etc. There is nothing National to opiate. Conforms to Sold by Pure Food and Drug Law. Druggists.

He had many rare qualities and attractive virtues, but one great gift—the gift of commanding utterance. And upon that his fame with rest and his influence abide. His pre-eminence was as a preacher. God anointed him to be a prophet in Israel, and clothed him with a power over a few times in a generation. He said more quotable words than any other man of his time, and he had a genius for proverb making."

There is our contained opinion of the Origin of the Cough Syrup. "Nearly all other cough syrups are counterfeits, especially those containing opium. Leuceny's Laxative (Cough Syrup) Honey and Tar moves the bowels. Contains opium. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by all druggists."

Capital Lawyer in New York.

Mr. M. W. Warley Plank has been elected supreme court judge of North by the democrats. About 30 years ago Mr. Plank came to this country from Bohemia, Germany, and settled in Marion where he was a clerk in a store. While in Bohemia he studied law in the office of Major Warley of Arlington, who was then in partnership with Mr. McChesney. Major Warley took a fancy to the young man and told him he would adopt him as his son if he would take his name. Mr. Plank took Warley as his given name but the writer does not know whether he was ever really adopted by Major Warley or not. Plank was then doing a fine law practice in New York and was now elected to the supreme bench. He is a cousin of Mr. E. R. Bogle of Arlington, who is now in the senate from New York.

Dancing Proves Fatal.

Many men and women catch cold at dances, which terminate in rheumatism, and consumption. After exposure, if Foley's Honey and Tar is taken it breaks up a cold and no serious results need be feared. Before you tell the gentles in a fellow pack, get—Leuceny's Pharmacy.

Married Men to Reform Him.

Mrs. Thelbert Good, twenty years old an unusually beautiful woman; committed suicide at Bedford city yesterday. A few months ago she married a dissipated man intending to reform him. Her suicide tells the result.

It is an experiment women have tried generations ago for generations. Why they do it is a mystery to men and probably to the women themselves. This odd superstition comes about almost to one. The average man would not make a week's salary at even money where he had but one chance in twenty to win. The average woman makes her life, honor and personal happiness and the future of her prospective children on such a proposition. She continues to do it somewhere every day of the year. Richmond News Leader.

Give children's remedy with a pleasant taste. Don't force unpleasant medicine on your children. Leuceny's Cough Syrup (containing) Honey and Tar is pleasant to take. It is a relief for better, etc. There is nothing National to opiate. Conforms to Sold by Pure Food and Drug Law. Druggists.

THE NEW PURE FOOD AND DRUG LAW.

Extract from address delivered at Carterville, Ga., October 19th.

"Where I called upon to state, in a few words, the qualities that give credit to the master of assemblies and enabled him to carry with the great of a nation the vast thousands that crowded to his ministry, I should say that they were his philosophical insight into the secret springs of human life, his power of lucid, luminous statements, his rare, gentle humor, the strength and wealth of his genuine love for humanity, and the marvelous quality of his wonderful voice—all under the domination and inspiration of the Holy Spirit. He had many rare qualities and attractive virtues, but one great gift—the gift of commanding utterance. And upon that his fame with rest and his influence abide. His pre-eminence was as a preacher. God anointed him to be a prophet in Israel, and clothed him with a power over a few times in a generation.
